COURT NOTES

Late Thursday afternoon the case of Curtis Tish vs. Harry L. Schaub was commenced before the jury in the Knox county common pleas court.

The plaintiff brings action for foreclosure of mortgage to recover the sum of $4,000, which he alleges is due on a promissory note. The testimony shows that Tish, fearing the note might be stolen, kept it in his home for many years.

The defendant sets up the claim that the note was a gift and that he is not indebted to the plaintiff in any sum.

R. L. Carr is the attorney for the plaintiff and F. O. Levering represents the defendant.

The jury was impaneled late Thursday afternoon and the testimony submitted in part. Court adjourned at 5 o'clock until 9 o'clock Friday morning, when the case was resumed.

The next jury case on the assignment is that of Tisserand vs. Greer, which will be started in common pleas court on next Monday.

Dates for Court—

The judges of the court of appeals issued a schedule Thursday showing the dates for holding the sessions of the appellate court in Knox county during the year 1923.

According to the schedule the court of appeals will convene in Knox county on March 5 and Oct. 15, 1923.

A schedule for holding common pleas court in Knox county was issued by Judge Blair some days ago. It shows that during 1923, the terms will start on the following dates: January 1, May 8 and October 1.

Marriage License—

Albert W. Hines, farmer, and Bertha A. Frazier, both of Berlin township. Rev. D. C. Coburn.

In the case of Curtis Tish vs. Henry Schaub, the jury returned a verdict for the defendant in the Knox county common pleas court at 3:30 Friday afternoon.

The plaintiff based his action on a promissory note in the sum of $4,000. The defendant claimed that the note was a gift and that he was indebted to the plaintiff in any sum.

The jury got the case at 11:30 a. m. and returned the verdict for the defendant at 3:30 p. m.

On account of the election next Tuesday, the members of the petit jury were excused until next Wednesday morning by Judge Blair. The regular assignment of jury cases will be taken up at that time.

Motion is Filed—

A motion for a new trial has been filed in the Knox county common pleas court in the case of Curtis Tish vs. Henry Schaub. R. L. Carr represents the plaintiff.

Case Submitted—

The case of Tisserand vs. Greer et al. was submitted on demurrer before Judge Blair in the Knox county common pleas court Friday afternoon. The matter is being held under advisement by the court.

Asks for Damages—

Hugh S. Keck has commenced a $5,000 damage suit in the Knox county common pleas court against the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Co. The plaintiff says the defendant caused his arrest, alleging that he broke into a freight car. He says the case was ignored by the grand jury and that as a result of the arrest his character has been greatly damaged. He asks for a judgment in the sum of $5,000. R. L. Carr and B. E. Sapp represent the plaintiff.

Another Damage Case—

Extra Long has commenced a $5,000 damage suit against Orville F. Parker in the Knox county common pleas court. The plaintiff alleges that on June 26, 1922, he was assaulted by the defendant and badly injured about the head. He says that as a result of the attack he has been ill for many months. He asks for damages in the sum of $5,000. Columbus Ewalt is the attorney for the plaintiff.

Opinion Filed—

In the case of F. O. Levering vs.

the Edison Storage Battery Co., an opinion by the court of appeals was received at the office of the clerk of courts Saturday morning. The court heard the matter at the October term, but took it under advisement. According to the opinion, the court of appeals affirms the judgment of the common pleas court with no penalty. The defendant in error also is entitled to recover the costs. The case is remanded back to the common pleas court for execution.

Account Filed—

A first and final account has been filed in the Knox county probate court by George Faulhaber, executor of Henry Faulhaber, showing the sum of $5,214.60 to have been received and the same sum paid out.

Allowance Granted—

In the matter of the reassignment of Oscar Purdy and Mary Purdy, application for allowance of homestead, Probate Judge Duke has granted an allowance in lieu of the homestead to Mary B. Purdy.

In the reassignment of J. A. McComber, an allowance in lieu of the homestead has been given to Katherine McComber by the probate court.

Petitioners are ready for circulation for the paving of College street from the schoolhouse to the Axtell corner on East College, and of Sandusky street from the park to the L. B. Ackerman residence. The preliminary work will be taken care of at the earliest possible time so that when spring opens, actual work on the excavating can be started.

A carload of brick is in for the street paving and more is expected every day. It will take about 60 carloads to complete the job.

A fence has been built along the new paved street on Mansfield avenue from the N. W. M. & E. to a point near the Foote foundry office. This insures safety along here, where there is quite an embankment and when given a coat of white paint will add to the appearance of the place.

The Mt. Vernon Telephone Co. is digging trenches from Chestnut street west to the corporation line, in which it will place new cables for its underground system. This will remove all telephone poles from the west side.

Hallowe'en celebrations in Fredericktown are a little different from what they are in most places, in that the celebration lasts about a week. The climax occurred here Tuesday night when windows were soaped from one end of town to the other; out-buildings were overturned and everything loose was removed to a new location. At the high school building a cow was taken into the building up on the second floor and tied to a water main, where the janitor found her next morning after the animal had passed a restless night.

Charles Debolt, now a resident of Licking county, who has a fine hanging over him for violating the prohibition laws, was ordered brought in to court Friday by Probate Judge Duke after he had received a letter from Debolt's mother-in-law that he was alleged to be operating a still in Licking county. Sheriff Lytle went to Newark and brought Debolt here last night.

Today when Debolt was arraigned before Judge Duke it was pointed out by his wife and children that the letter had been written by the mother-in-law for spite.

Judge Duke considered it a case of "too much mother-in-law" and ordered Debolt released and permitted him to return to his home in Licking county.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon, Sheriff B. H. Lytle poured out on the court house grounds 7 gallons of booze of all sorts taken in raids during the past few months. Quite a crowd assembled to witness the liquor soak into the ground. Most of the liquor was corn whiskey.

R. L. Shaw of London, O., has purchased the Salisbury property at 203 North Main street, it is announced today, and has started remodeling the place purposing to convert it into an up-to-date funeral home.

Mr. Shaw, who has been engaged in the undertaking business at London, recently sold his interests there and has come to Mt. Vernon with a purpose of engaging in business here and making this city his home. Mr. Shaw is the son-in-law of President of the City Council Thomas E. Auskings. He has had several years of experience in his professional calling here in Mt. Vernon and is but returning to his former home.

The equipment to be placed in the new funeral home is to be of the latest type and everything new. His motor equipment will be a Big Six Studebaker. The invalid car is to be of the latest type, a Sedan-invalid car, equipped with Westinghouse air springs. This car will be at the call of the public at any hour, day or night, distance making no difference.

The use of the funeral home will be extended freely to all patrons wishing to use the same for laying out the loved dead and for holding funeral services. Funeral homes are the latest type of undertaking establishments and are now to be found in numbers throughout the country.

Mr. Shaw will have in his service a lady attendant, Mrs. Thomas E. Auskings, who will assist on all lady and infant calls.

Mr. Shaw is making the following announcement: "The R. L. Shaw Funeral Home, the Home of Service. Our services are as near to you as your phone. Open."

KNOX CO. NEWS

Sheriff B. H. Lytle added another arrest Friday to his long list for violation of the prohibition laws when he took into custody Aurelia Lucel of South Vernon.

Lucel was arrested by Sheriff Lytle and Deputy Sheriff Oliver M. Walker on a charge of selling intoxicating liquor. The affidavit against the Italian was sworn to by County Prosecutor Paul M. Ashbaugh before Probate Judge L. Jay Duke.

Lucel was arrested at his home by the officers and taken immediately before Probate Judge Duke, where he entered a plea of guilty to the charge of selling intoxicating liquor.

Lucel was given a fine of $1,000 and costs by the court and being unable to pay his fine, he was ordered committed to the Knox county jail.

Lucel is said to have confessed to the officers that he purchased whiskey in Columbus at $7 a gallon and that he sold it to a man residing on the Pleasant Valley road south of the city.

Robert Coleman of Buckeye City has just received some valuable prizes on his chickens exhibited at York and Altoona, Pa.

At the York fair, Mr. Coleman won first and special prizes on S. C. Buff Orpingtons, while the hen won a special prize for the best Buff Orpington in the show.

At the Blair county fair, held at Altoona, Pa., Mr. Coleman won second prize on Dark Cornish Game cock and third prize on Dark Cornish Game hen.

A meeting of the Knox County Duroc Breeders' association was held Thursday evening, 65 guests, including members and their families, enjoying an oyster supper in the community room of the Knox County Savings bank.

Following the dinner an interesting program was given, including an address by C. C. Terrell of New Vienna, a Duroc breeder and one who has been eminently successful in a large way. He is an enthusiast on the Duroc breed and emphasized reasons for this preference. He also informed his audience how and when to prepare hogs for showing. They were told that now is the time to begin, starting with breeding. He outlined a proper feed to bring the sow to farrowing time, much exercise, and suggesting the right kind of feed for raising young pigs.

The members of the association voted to present a young pig to the Knox County Savings bank to be prepared and served at the annual dinner for the bank's employees in December.
